

September is Leukodystrophy Awareness Month

What is it?

Leukodystrophy is a group of rare, primarily inherited neurological disorders.

Scientists have identified more than 50 different types of leukodystrophy, with some still unidentified.

#LeukoAware[®]

What Can You Do?

Make a Donation Today!

Learn more about Leukodystrophy

Get Involved

(800) SAV-LIVE or (800) 728-5483

Email: office@ulf.org

ULF.org

The United Leukodystrophy Foundation (ULF), is a registered 501(c)3 nonprofit, voluntary health organization whose mission is to provide support to the leukodystrophy community and enable platforms to accelerate improving patient quality of life and finding cures.